

Finland Telecommunications Network Cabinet

Overview

The Finnish Transport and Communications Agency (Liikenne- ja viestintävirasto, Traficom) is the regulatory authority for licence, registration and approval matters. Telecommunications in Finland, as indicated by a 2022 European Commission index, highlight the country's significant role in the EU's digital sector. Finland has a high concentration of Information and Communication Technology (ICT) specialists and robust training programs, leading to notable. In 2019 the Ministry of Transport and Communications, responsible for the operation of transport and communications markets and critical communications networks, launched a digital infrastructure strategy with the goal of turning Finland into the world leader in communications networks by 2025. The Digital infrastructure strategy and Finland's digital compass support the EU's. a mix of 3 publicly operated TV stations and numerous privately owned TV stations; several free and special-interest pay-TV channels; cable and satellite multi-channel subscription services are available; all TV signals are broadcast digitally; Internet television, such as Netflix and others, is.

Article Content

Finland Communications 2024, CIA World Factbook

NOTE: The information regarding Finland on this page is re-published from the 2024 World Fact Book of the United States Central Intelligence Agency and other sources.

Telecommunications operators in Finland – statistics

Mobile network operations are the leading sector for telecommunications operators Finland's telecommunications sector generated ...

Telecommunications in Finland

There are three major cellular network providers with independent networks (Elisa Oyj, Telia Finland and DNA Oyj). There are several smaller providers which may have independent networks in smaller ...

TUUTTI project to shape Finland's communication network policy until ...

While it already has a 12-year transport system plan for road, rail and air transport, Finland has lacked a corresponding plan for communication networks. The Government is now correcting ...

Shared use of infrastructure in communications network construction ...

The final report presents measures to facilitate the shared use and to reduce investment costs. In Finland, an increase in the shared use of the network infrastructure could result in ...

Finland to deepen international cooperation in telecommunications

The TUUTTI project will shape Finland's communication network policies until 2037 while taking into account technological advances and changes in the global operating environment.

Turning Finland into the world leader in communications networks

Finland invests significantly less than the other Nordic countries in telecommunications networks. In 2016, EUR 242 million was invested in fixed network operations and EUR 591 million in ...

Digital connectivity in Finland

The Finnish Transport and Communications Agency (Liikenne- ja viestintävirasto, Traficom) is the regulatory authority for licence, registration and approval matters. It ensures access to high-quality ...

Contact Us

For more information, pricing, or custom solutions, please contact us:

Website: <https://www.budowasilesia.pl>

Email: contact@budowasilesia.pl

Phone: +48 537 192 846

Address: ul. Chorzowska 45, 40-001 Katowice, Silesian Voivodeship, Poland

This document is for informational purposes only. Specifications subject to change without notice.

